9 DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCESS

BFS is committed to providing quality products and services. As part of that commitment, we are focused upon improving client satisfaction by providing an efficient and accessible system for complaint resolution. We have an internal dispute resolution process (IDR) in place to resolve any complaints or concerns you have fairly and quickly.

If you have any complaint about the service provided to you, you should take the following steps:

Any complaints or concerns should be raised in the first instance with a member of our staff, who will seek to resolve your complaint. You may also direct your complaint to our Complaints Handling Officer on 1300 650 542 or to our postal address: Ministry and Learning Centre, Level 4, 5 Saunders Close, Macquarie Park NSW 2113.

If we are unable to settle your complaint immediately to your satisfaction, then we will acknowledge your complaint and may, if relevant, request further details from you. If your complaint is closed within 5 Business Days, by being resolved to your satisfaction or if there is no reasonable action that can be taken to address the complaint, then we will communicate with you. This may be by means other than in writing (for example, by telephone) but, if you wish, you may request that we provide you with a written response.

Otherwise, within 30 days of receiving your complaint, we will:

- advise you in writing of the results of its investigation; or
- advise you of the reasons for any further delay.

An investigation will continue beyond 30 days only in exceptional circumstances, for example, if there are delays caused by other financial institutions or merchants involved in resolving the complaint, or in circumstances where we investigate the relevant transaction under any applicable industry rules. We will continue to provide you with monthly updates on the progress of the investigation and a date when a decision can be reasonably expected, unless we are waiting for a response from you, and you have been advised that we require such response.

If you are dissatisfied with our final IDR decision, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA) up to two years after receiving our final decision. AFCA is an approved external dispute resolution scheme, of which BFS is a member.

13 TERMS AND CONDITIONS - SECURE EMAIL

Secure Email is a secure communication service available through BFSOnline. Clients can use it to communicate with BFS and provide authorised instructions. This service is accessed by an individual who has been given access to BFSOnline by BFS or by a BFSOnline Business Administrator.

After logging on to BFSOnline, Secure Email is accessed from the Menu Bar. A Secure Email request, message or instructions can be sent internally through BFS's client management system to BFS staff.

Secure email is not an internet email service but uses a secure internal mail system via the client software system used by BFS to manage your accounts.

You may also receive a secure message from BFS via Secure Email and you will be alerted to the arrival of a Secure Email as soon as you logon to BFSOnline.

Please note that where your BFS account requires at least two (2) persons to authorise any transaction or to operate on the account, at least 2 authorised signatories will be required to send separate Secure Emails to BFS to transact or to change information in respect of your account.

Where Nominated Account details have been provided to BFS, the daily transfer limit for Secure Email authorised transactions from each BFS account into the Nominated Account is unlimited.

14 TERMS AND CONDITIONS - INTERNET ACCOUNT ACCESS (BFSONLINE)

14.1 GENERAL

Your account may include access to our BFSOnline service. BFSOnline allows you to access your account and information through the BFS website.

You will be taken to have accepted these terms and conditions when you, or an authorised user, accesses or seeks to access, an account through BFSOnline.

BFSOnline is available to Australian citizens and Australian residents only.

In the event of any inconsistencies between this section and other sections of the terms and conditions, this section will apply to the extent of the inconsistency.

When you use BFSOnline, you agree that:

- while you may lodge a withdrawal request or provide Secure Email instructions using BFSOnline, you cannot initiate an automatic transfer of funds in your accounts using BFSOnline,
- you are giving BFS instructions,
- BFS can rely on these instructions as instructions given by you and you will be liable for all transactions, we process that arise from use of BFSOnline,
- other than to correct an error in your account and the refund of any charges or fees imposed on you resulting from the error, BFS will not be liable to you for any loss caused by BFSOnline malfunctioning if you were aware, or should have been aware, that BFSOnline was unavailable for use or was malfunctioning,
- if you believe that your password has been breached, you must notify BFS as soon as possible,
- if you believe there has been a mistake or we processed a transaction that you did not authorise, you must immediately contact BFS,
- information BFS gives you through BFSOnline about your account relates to transactions that BFS has processed. Some transactions that you may have made may not have been processed to the account at the time BFS gives you the information you have requested,
- these terms and conditions operate in conjunction with the terms and conditions applicable to the individual products offered by BFS and non-cash payment products you have nominated to be accessed by using this service.

BFS agrees to comply with the ePayments Code.

Applications for BFSOnline must always be in the name of an individual. Joint account clients must apply separately for a login if required.

Individuals with authority to operate both personal and business or church accounts may request access to all accounts using the same login, but they must use a separate application form for access to each client number.

14.2 SECURITY OF CODES

The security of your codes is very important. If you fail to observe the security requirements set out in these terms and conditions, you are responsible for any unauthorised use of your codes. It is therefore very important that you keep both your login and your password confidential, and you agree:

- Not to choose for a password any part or combination of your date of birth, your name, family members names, or licence, social security, or similar numbers,
- Not to record your codes in writing without making a reasonable attempt to protect their security,

- To change your password at regular intervals not exceeding 90 days and ensure that your authorised users do likewise, and

- That any BFSOnline Administrator may create codes for other users but will observe the above security requirements set out in these terms and conditions in respect of the created codes.

You acknowledge that there may be other unsuitable ways to disguise your codes because another person could possibly work out your password. You must use extreme care if you decide to use a memory aid for your codes.

14.3 LIABILITY FOR UNAUTHORISED TRANSACTIONS

You will not be liable for losses:

- caused by fraudulent or negligent conduct by employees of BFS or any of our service providers,
- relating to any forged, faulty, expired, or cancelled component of BFSOnline,
- that arise from transactions which required the use of your codes set up by BFS and which occurred before you received any such codes,
- caused by the same transaction being incorrectly debited more than once to the same account,
- resulting from an unauthorised transaction/s occurring after you have first notified us that the security of the codes has been breached, or
- resulting from an unauthorised transaction/s where it is clear that you have not contributed to the losses.

If it is unclear whether you have contributed to the loss caused by an unauthorised transaction performed using your codes:

- your liability will be limited to the lesser of $150 or the balance of the account from which the value was transferred, or
- the actual loss at the time you notified us that security of the codes had been breached.

If we can prove on the balance of probability that you contributed to the loss arising from the unauthorised transaction:

- by not abiding by these terms and conditions in relation to the points shown above regarding security of your codes, or
- by acting with carelessness in failing to protect the security of your codes in any way,

You are liable for the actual losses incurred before you notified us that security had been breached, except for:

- that part of the loss which exceeds the balance of the account in which the loss was incurred, and
- losses incurred on any accounts which you and we had not agreed should be accessed by BFSOnline.

14.4 OBLIGATIONS

BFS is not responsible for the operation of any secure computer equipment or electronic system (other than BFSOnline) you use to access BFSOnline using the internet.

BFS may cancel or suspend your access to BFSOnline at any time. If BFS does this and it is practical to do so, BFS will notify you prior to BFS cancelling or suspending your access to BFSOnline.

BFSOnline instructions requiring the transfer of funds may not be carried out if there are insufficient funds in your account.

You must be an authorised signatory to an account to be granted FULL access to that account. Non-authorised signatories may apply for ENQUIRY ONLY access but this request must be authorised by the appropriate authorised signatory/s to the account/s.

The first time you login you will be required to change your temporary password to a new password of your own choice. This password should be chosen carefully so as to be secure and known only to you. It should not be the same or similar to any other password or personal identification number you have.

You may terminate your BFSOnline at any time by giving notice in writing to BFS.

You acknowledge and accept that BFS cannot verify by way of signature comparison whether access was correct and authorised and accept that the use of the correct codes is the equivalent to the use of an authorised signature/s.

You agree to take full responsibility for all transactions effected through BFSOnline where the correct codes of you or your authorised users are used.

14.5 FEES

Please refer to Part 2 - Account & Service Fees Schedule for fees which may be payable for a rejected electronic transaction or to trace an electronic transaction.
